

Guess that '50s Slang

How well do you remember the lingo of the 1950s?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

1. Feeling angry, annoyed, or worked up
2. A person who is clumsy or awkward
3. A black eye
4. A casual way to say "man" or "fellow"
5. Someone who is old-fashioned or not very hip
6. To leave or go away
7. Something that isn't a problem or not worth worrying about
8. A punch to the mouth
9. Someone who is hip and knows what's going on
10. Something that is especially neat, stylish, or cool
11. To end a phone call
12. A very good-looking guy
13. A dull or boring person
14. A shy or modest response to a compliment
15. Acting like you want trouble or a fight
16. Your home or place
17. Kissing and cuddling
18. Someone who spoils the fun for others
19. A short race between cars
20. Money
21. Having things go your way; success comes easily
22. To understand, appreciate, or really like something
23. The bathroom
24. To dance with energy and enthusiasm

MATCH THE SLANG

- | | |
|-------|-------------------------|
| _____ | Nifty |
| _____ | Split |
| _____ | Cruisin' for a Bruisin' |
| _____ | Made in the Shade |
| _____ | Shiner |
| _____ | Dreamboat |
| _____ | Cut a Rug |
| _____ | Party Pooper |
| _____ | Necking or Making Out |
| _____ | Bread |
| _____ | Aw-Shucks |
| _____ | Square |
| _____ | No Big Deal |
| _____ | Dig |
| _____ | Bent Out of Shape |
| _____ | Drag |
| _____ | Can |
| _____ | Get Off the Horn |
| _____ | Wet Rag |
| _____ | Knuckle Sandwich |
| _____ | Daddy-O |
| _____ | Cool Cat |
| _____ | Pad |
| _____ | Klutz |

